

Directions to Color Run

From Saratoga, Schuylerville:

Go east on Route 29, across the Hudson river in Schuylerville, and past the Washington County fairgrounds. Turn right onto route 40 south. Travel about 15 miles, through Easton (be careful of the speed limits in Easton), and into Rensselaer County. At the traffic light just past Wiley Bros. lumber on your left, turn left onto Route 67 east. Go past the Hoosic Valley School, and take the third left onto County Route 114 (Master Street). Follow Route 114 for just under 4 miles. You will pass Ridge Road on your left, Long Meadows Road on your right, Akin Road on your left (opposite Bridge Street which I don't think is marked), Harkness Road (dirt road) on your right. Next left is Barton Road (also dirt). Turn onto Barton Road, go past the barn, and turn in at the gate on the right.

From Greenwich:

From the east side of Greenwich, turn from Route 372 onto County Route 74 south. Follow Route 74 into Rensselaer County, travel about 1.3 miles past the county line. You will pass Schweniger road on your left, Geron road on your right. The next right is Barton Road (dirt road). Turn onto Barton Road, go past the barn, and turn in at the gate on the right.

From Cambridge:

Go west on Route 59 (Center Cambridge Road) from the village of Cambridge. Stay on Center Cambridge Road until you intersect Washington County Route 74. Turn Left onto Route 74. Follow Route 74 into Rensselaer County, travel about 1.3 miles past the county line. You will pass Schweniger road on your left, Geron road on your right. The next right is Barton Road (dirt road). Turn onto Barton Road, go past the barn, and turn in at the gate on the right.

From the East and Southeast:

Follow route 67 west through the hamlets of Eagle Bridge and Buskirk. A little over 6 miles past the turn for the Buskirk Covered Bridge, turn right onto Bridge Street in Johnsonville (Rensselaer County Route 111). Follow Bridge Street to the top of the hill (about 1/2 mile), then turn right at the Stop sign onto Rensselaer County Route 114 (Master Street). About 3/4 of a mile, turn left onto Barton Road (dirt road), go past the barn, and turn in at the gate on the right.

From the South (Troy):

Go north on Route 40 through Spiegletown, Melrose, and the Village of Schaghticoke. At the traffic light (just past Hoosic Valley Center) turn right onto Route 67 East. Go past the Hoosic Valley School, and take the third left onto County Route 114 (Master Street). Follow Route 114 for just under 4 miles. You will pass Ridge Road on your left, Long Meadows Road on your right, Akin Road on your left (opposite Bridge Street which I don't think is marked), Harkness Road (dirt road) on your right. Next left is Barton Road (also dirt). Turn onto Barton Road, go past the barn, and turn in at the gate on the right.

From the West (Clifton Park or the Northway):

Either cross the Hudson River in Mechanicville on Route 67, follow route 67 to Route 40, take 40 north through the village of Schaghticoke to the traffic light at Hoosic Valley center, and turn right onto Route 67 East or

Cross the Hudson River in Stillwater, and follow Stillwater Bridge Road to the traffic light at Hoosic Valley Center. Go Straight at the light onto Route 67 East,

Then

Go past the Hoosic Valley School, and take the third left onto County Route 114 (Master Street). Follow Route 114 for just under 4 miles. You will pass Ridge Road on your left, Long Meadows Road on your right, Akin Road on your left (opposite Bridge Street which I don't think is marked), Harkness Road (dirt road) on your right. Next left is Barton Road (also dirt). Turn onto Barton Road, go past the barn, and turn in at the gate on the right.
